CLEMSON AND FURMAN WENT 17 INNINGS TO A TIE HERE TUESDAY

Nearly 1500 Fans Saw Hard Fought Pitchers' Duel at Catter's Park—Long and Moseley Twirled in Splendid Style.

A pitchers' duel between Long and Moseley at Catter's field yesterday afternoon lasted 17 innings and resulted in a tie between Clemson and Furman, play being called at 7 o'clock because of darkness. A crowd estimated at 1,200 was on hand to root for their favorites, and from a point of excitement the game was easily the most enthusiastic athletic event ever staged in Anderson.

Both pitchers are due much credit. At times the fielding was rather erratic, and in the last half of the 12th inning Moseley found himself in a hole from which he barely extricated himself. A clean drive, a sacrifice, a fluke hit and a base on balls filled the bases in this round and the Clemson rooters went wild. Moseley showed the stuff he was made of, though, by walking Clemson's best hitter, Anderson, after he had fanned Long, and an easy grounder to second base retired the side.

First Inning. Cain was walked. Brown went to first on a fielder's choice. Cain going to second. Mobley was safe at first on a fielder's choice. Brown being forced at second. Mobley went to third on Wingo's long drive, but made the third out when he attempted to steal home, the play being made pitcher to catcher. Wingo was left on second. After this inning Long was never in danger of being scored on. One hit; no runs.

Anderson led off with an easy grounder to third, going out at first. Major fanned. Parker was safe on shortstop's error, but was left on first when Harris fanned. No hits; no runs.

Second Inning. Hughes walked, and took second when Jones went out short to first. He was caught napping at second. Boyd fanned. No hits; no runs. Martin hit a hot one to short and was safe on a slow throw to first. McMillan, James and Jordan fanned in rapid succession. Moseley's speed was terrific, and he was working a fast outshoot which seemed to puzzle the Tiger batsmen. One hit; no runs.

Third Inning. Wilson fanned. Moseley went out short to first. Cain hit safely to center. Brown walked. Moseley flied out to third. One hit; no runs. Long fanned. Anderson hit a hot one past third base. Major was given a hit when third was unable to handle a fierce drive. The bases were filled when Parker passed four bad ones. Harris flied out to centerfield. Martin retired the side with an easy one to the pitcher. Two hits; no runs.

Fourth Inning. Wingo was safe when first dropped the ball. Hughes fanned after having his finger split open when hit by pitcher, and Jeter relieved him at third base. Jones fanned. Boyd went out third to first. No hits; no runs.

McMillan drove an easy one to first and was out. James fanned. Jordan was safe when centerfield dropped a high one. The wind seemed to bother the fielder. Long fanned. No hits; no runs.

Fifth Inning. Wilson swung wide of three fast ones and went to the bench. Moseley went out third to first. Cain went to first when hit by pitcher. Brown went out second to first. No hits; no runs.

Anderson was out short to first. Major popped out to third. Parker ballooned to right. No hits; no runs.

Sixth Inning. Mobley popped out to catcher. Wingo was safe when first dropped the ball. Jeter and Jones fanned. No hits; no runs.

Harris flied out to left. Martin popped out to first. McMillan went out pitcher to first. No hits; no runs.

Seventh Inning. Boyd went out pitcher to first. Wilson flied out to short. Moseley flied out to left. No hits; no runs. James popped out to third. Jordan went out short to first. Long fanned for the third consecutive time. No hits; no runs.

Eighth Inning. Cain went out third to first. Brown hit an easy one to second, going out at first. Mobley flied out to right. No hits; no runs.

Anderson went out pitcher to first. Major flied out to right. Parker was out second to first. No hits; no runs.

Ninth Inning. Wingo hit an easy one to first and was out. Jeter flied out to right. Furman fans cheered vociferously when Jones hit safe past first. He went out, though, on an attempt to steal second, Harris making a beautiful peg. One hit; no runs.

Both Clemson players and rooters were excited in the last of the 9th and the die was terrific. Harris popped out to third, Jeter going into the bleachers to get the ball. Martin hit safe past third and went to second on McMillan's sacrifice, pitcher to first. James blasted the hopes of the rooters by fanning. One hit; no runs.

Tenth Inning. Boyd fanned. Wilson went out third to first and was followed by Moseley, who went out second to first. No hits; no runs. Jordan was out to first unassisted.

ed. Long popped out to pitcher. Anderson hit a screamer over centerfield's head, the ball going into the crowd congregated in that section of the field. He was put out attempting to steal third. One hit; no runs.

Eleventh Inning. Cain got a hit past short and took second on Brown's sacrifice, pitcher to first. Cain was left on second when Mobley flied out to center and was followed by Wingo with an easy one to right. One hit; no runs.

Major singled over second, and was advanced by Parker's sacrifice, pitcher to first. Harris went out second to first. Martin fanned. One hit; no runs.

Twelfth Inning. Jeter popped out to second. Jones went out pitcher to first. Boyd fanned. No hits; no runs.

McMillan singled past first. James hit out a slow one past the pitcher. McMillan being safe at second. Both runners advanced on Jordan's sacrifice, pitcher to first. Long fanned. Anderson came up and was given four bad ones after Coach Laval conferred with the catcher. Major went out second to first, much to the relief of the Furman rooters. Two hits; no runs.

Wilson popped out to third. Anderson made a splendid running catch of Moseley's long drive into deep right. Cain went out third to first. No hits; no runs.

Parker singled past second base. He took second on Harris' sacrifice, who went out pitcher to first. Martin walked. McMillan and James fanned, retiring the side. One hit; no runs.

Fourteenth Inning. Brown was safe when short fumbled his slow grounder. Mobley flied out to right, who threw to first and caught Brown in a double play. Wingo ballooned to right. Anderson took every opportunity in right. No hits; no runs.

Jordan went out pitcher to first. Long popped out to first. Anderson was safe at first when left field dropped his high fly. Major popped out to second. No hits; no runs.

Fifteenth Inning. Jeter flied out to right. Jones went out third to first. Boyd was out to first unassisted. No hits; no runs.

Parker was out second to first. Harris fanned. Martin went out short to first. No hits; no runs.

Sixteenth Inning. Wilson flied out to left. Moseley and Cain both fanned. No hits; no runs.

McMillan went out second to first. James popped out to catcher. Jordan fanned. No hits; no runs.

Seventeenth Inning. Brown singled past second, but was out catcher to second when he attempted to steal. Mobley singled past third and likewise went out at second on Harris' unerring peg, short taking the throw. Wingo was safe when centerfield dropped his high fly. Jeter went out pitcher to first. No hits; no runs.

Long doubled to center. He went to third on the play when Anderson went out short to first. Major popped out to third. Parker flied out to right. Out hit, no runs. Umpire Bailey called the game on account of darkness.

ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT GREAT SUCCESS

CROWD ATTENDING ESTIMATED AT APPROXIMATELY 1,000

DANCED IN STREET

Asphalt Paving Made an Excellent Dancing Surface and There Was Plenty of Room.

The open air entertainment given last night at the intersection of McDuffie and Calhoun streets for the Clemson cadets was a grand success, the crowd early in the night being estimated at 1,000. However, many of these were spectators and numbers of them left about 10 o'clock. The dancing continued until 11 o'clock.

Early yesterday afternoon sections of Calhoun and McDuffie streets were roped off so as to prevent traffic in them. They were thoroughly cleaned by the city street department and corn meal was then sprinkled on the surface. This made the asphalt an excellent dancing surface.

This was the first dance to be given on the asphalt paving and many people attended just because of the novelty of the thing. However, the majority of them were there to welcome the cadets and to assist in giving them a good time. Cadets were everywhere, at least two-thirds of them being present.

Refreshments, consisting of cake and nectar, were served on the vacant lot on the corner of Greenville and North McDuffie streets by committees of ladies.

A noticeable feature of the occasion was the number of out-of-town visitors present. There were several young ladies and young men from Williamston, Pendleton, and other nearby towns. These danced and added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

Mrs. Robert Ligon, as chairman of the committee, and all of the ladies who assisted in making the dance a success, are to be congratulated. It was a splendid affair, not only enjoyed by the cadets and the young ladies, but by the people generally of the city.

Friday Night.

On Friday night there will be a reception given in the vacant store rooms of the Anderson theatre and in the hall above. This will be in the nature of a farewell reception to the cadets and is under the supervision of Mrs. Albert S. Farmer.
